

THE ARMY CAREER AND ALUMNI PROGRAM

PRESENTS:

“Cussen about Money!”

Mark Cussen, a Certified Financial Planner (CFP®) and Accredited Financial Counselor, will be providing lunchtime classes for those interested in different aspects of investing, saving, and establishing credit. The dates and topics for upcoming classes are:

- 30 Jan: Basics of Life Insurance - CR304
- 13 Feb: IRA and Qualified Plans - CR125
- 27 Feb: College Savings Accounts - CR304
- 13 Mar: Basics of Investing - CR125
- 27 Mar: Introduction to Stocks - CR125
- 10 Apr: Introduction to Bonds - CR125
- 24 Apr: Introduction to Mutual Funds - CR304
- 8 May: Introduction to Annuities - CR106
- 22 May: Credit Scores and Reports - CR106
- 12 Jun: Overview of Debt - CR106
- 26 Jun: Overview of Home Purchasing - CR106
- 10 Jul: Introduction to Taxes - CR125

All classes will be held from 11:30 am to 1:00 pm in one of the classrooms in Building 198, 600 Thomas Ave, Resiliency Center. Please call 913-684-ACAP (2227) to RSVP so we can ensure there is enough class material on hand. Bring your lunch, napkins are free.

ACAP's mission is to make the transition from military to civilian life as seamless as possible. If you are within 18 months of separating from the military, (24 months if retiring), you are eligible for services. Some other services ACAP offers are resume assistance, job search skill enhancement, interview skill enhancement, and help with choosing a career path. Call us at (913) 684-ACAP (2227) or email acap.leavenworth@serco-na.com to get started.